Getting Serviced

The Bite:

Wanna have the ride of your life in the backseat of a car? Get picked up by Eco Nation's luxe car service. Each of its top-of-the-line hybrid or alt-fuel vehicles is tricked out with perks like wi-fi, touchscreen digital music and video entertainment, plus they're stocked with healthy munchies (almonds, granola bars). The fleet: Priuses, alt-fuel Lincoln Town Cars (which emit 23%-30% less CO2 than gas-fueled rides), and Lexus hybrid sedans.

We rolled up to the Twenty Two Shoes launch party in our sleek, tint-windowed sedan, manned by Robert-the-superattentive-chauffeur. EN also organizes personalized trips, such as local wine-tasting tours or romantic beachside picnics (gourmet meal for two and choice of bevvy included). It's just better when someone else does it.

Wanna Try:

Eco Nation, (310-312-0820). H'wood to LAX in alt-fuel sedan, $77.

If 10,000 Biters opt for a Prius car service for a 20-mi trip instead of taking a regular taxi, we'll keep the weight of 76 Priuses in CO2 from entering the atmosphere.

The Beatles song "Drive My Car" is about a girl who plans to be famous and wants a driver - however, Paul McCartney has said that it's an old blues euphemism for sex.
