LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9 /PRNewswire/ -- After successfully launching operations in January, Econation unveils the first global reservation service available to book "green" limousine service anytime, anywhere.

In response to the request of their Fortune 500 and entertainment industry clientele, Econation created a trusted worldwide network of limousine companies that have made the decision to add "green" vehicles to their fleet. Econation now can provide "green" ground transportation in major markets throughout the United States, Canada and Europe.

"Our clients have asked us from the beginning to create a ground transportation company that can book a 'green' vehicle for them anywhere in the world with the same level of service that Econation provides here in Los Angeles," stated Ben Bloch, Managing Partner of Econation, "We feel we have created that network globally by enabling a stringent ongoing quality of service program in addition to helping our partners take the next steps in becoming an environmentally - friendly provider."

About Econation:

Econation is an exciting new "green" alternative to traditional ground transportation (taxi's, Town cars, buses, etc.). With a great assortment of hybrid and alternative fuel based sedans, utility vehicles and buses, it's an easy way for individuals and corporations to be environmentally and socially conscious without sacrificing price, comfort, or dependable service. Each ride includes healthy refreshments and don't forget to ask about our optional high speed in car wireless internet and touch screen digital entertainment. Econation is open for business 24 x 7 by calling 877-ECO-NATN (326-6286) x 1 or through the internet at <http://www.econation.com>
